PREFATORY NOTE

This compilation of the Marriage Intentions is printed under authority of an order of the City Council, approved Feb. 7, 1919. It includes all Marriage Intentions of record, from Dec. 2, 1699 (the date of the first entry) to Dec. 31, 1890, excepting those of parties whose marriage appears of record and has already been printed. In some instances, where there is more than the usual discrepancy between the date of the marriage intention and the marriage record, or where some other divergency in the two records appears, the marriage intention is given.

The manuscript for this publication was prepared twenty-five years ago. I have added, by way of footnotes, references to historical and genealogical information to be found in other volumes of the series; so that, to a certain extent, this volume is an index to considerable data printed in these other volumes. I have also inserted, in the text of this publication, the marriages of Woburn parties recorded in some neighboring cities and towns, some of which antedate the Woburn records.

The abbreviations V. R. stand for Vital Records, and the designations 2nd, 3rd, etc., mean that it is the individual's second, third or other marriage.

I wish this publication might have included the record for the decade ending December 31, 1900, but, as already stated, the manuscript was prepared in the year 1894, and the City Council having voted to publish it this year, I did not think it advisable to delay the publication for the purpose of extending the printed record to Dec. 31, 1900.

I call attention to Appendices to Parts VIII and IX of the series, which give Woburn deaths and marriages published in the local papers, and not found on the city records.

EDWARD F. JOHNSON.

†In Woburn Marriages, 1640-1872, page 329, in the line: "87. Josiah[5] b. March 2, 1710; d. June 17, 1748," cross out the date of death. On page 330, substitute 87 for 62 in heavy figures; after 107 insert the words "eleven other children," and "105. Sarah[6], b. Nov. 1729" should be 93½ as the 9th child of Josiah[4] and Hannah. On page 331, substitute 62 for 87 in heavy figures at top of page. These corrections are suggested by Seymour Morris of Chicago who gives as authority therefor, the town records of Leicester, Mass., and Stafford, Conn., and the family Bible of Lieut. Josiah Converse now in possession of A. W. Converse of Windsor Locks, Conn. As a result of these records brought to light by Mr. Morris, Mr. William R. Cutter printed in the N. E. Hist. & Gen. Reg., in 1896, Vol. 50, a record of the descendants of Allen Converse. Most of the present Woburn Converses are descended from this Allen Converse (a nephew of Edward Converse) and not from Edward Converse, as stated in Sewall's History of Woburn and elsewhere.

See also "History and Genealogy of One Line of Descent from Captain Edward Johnson, together with His English Ancestry, 1500-1914, by Alfred Johnson," published in Boston, 1914. On page 170 will be found the history of the Captain Edward Johnson Homestead in Woburn, which passed into the Kendall family, in 1688, and remained in the Kendall name until 1911. See also "Capt. Abigail Manning, of Woburn, mar. Jabez Carter, June 27, 1723. [Cambridge V. R.]

*Joseph Manning, a brother of Abigail (Manning) Carter, wife of Lieut Jabez Carter, of Woburn, graduated from Harvard in 1730, and became a physician. His will dated October 29, 1744, probated Nov. 4, 1745, describes him as "of Woburn." The will does not mention wife nor children. His will gives £70 to Harvard, and his personal effects, "together with my boots," to his sister, Mrs. Carter. He was born in Cambridge, and although his will states that he had "a design by divine permission to go to Sea" yet he was evidently buried on land as there is a charge against his estate for a pair of gravestones. His kindred had removed to Connecticut.

*Dr. Richard U. Piper, a resident in Woburn in the fifties, died in Newport, Maine, August 4, 1897, aged 81 yrs. 4ms. He was born in Stratham, N. H., and was the son of Samuel and Mary (Folsom) Piper. While in Woburn, he published his work on "The Trees of America." Four parts only were issued, and copies are rare and valuable. Part I, issued in 1855, gives an interesting list of Woburn subscribers. His work was that of a pioneer in urging the planting of American trees and shrubs. It is illustrated with specimens of beautiful and historic trees with descriptive text. Among these is the Boston Elm; Assabet Oak in Stow; Avery Elm, Stratham, N. H.; Charter Oak, Hartford; Black Oak, New York Central Park; Winchester Pine, on Prince Estate, Winchester, and Black Walnut, Roslyn, L. I. The writer comments somewhat at length on the trees of Nahant, with special reference to Mr. Tudor and his estate.
